

Table ES-1. Official Emblems of Saskatchewan

Adopted	Emblem	Description/Details
1906	Shield of Arms	Granted by Royal Warrant of King Edward VII, August 25, 1906. Red lion on gold background in upper third, three gold wheat sheaves on green background in lower two-thirds.
1906	Great Seal	Authorized by Order-in-Council, November 26, 1906. Shield of arms surrounded by legend "The Great Seal of the Province of Saskatchewan".
1941	Floral Emblem	Western Red Lily (Lilium philadelphicum L. var. andinum)
1945	Bird Emblem	Sharp-tailed Grouse (Pedioecetes phasianellus jamesi)
1961	District Tartan	Registered with the Court of Lord Lyon, King of Arms, in Edinburgh in 1961. Two-block tartan with seven different shades.
1969	Flag	Selected by competition and dedicated in the Legislature September 22, 1969. Horizontal bands of green and gold, displaying the Shield of Arms and the Western Red Lily.
1977	Logo	Wheat sheaf logo adopted for visual identity of executive government.
1986	Coat of Arms	Complete armorial bearings granted by Royal Warrant of Queen Elizabeth II on September 16, 1986. Shield of Arms augmented by supporters, crest, and motto.
1988	Tree Emblem	White Birch (Betula papyrifera). Adopted in The Provincial Emblems and Honours Act, 1988.
1991	Great Seal	Adopted by Proclamation, November 1, 1991. Armorial bearings surrounded by legend "Elizabeth II. Queen of Canada. The Great Seal of the Province of Saskatchewan".
1997	Mineral Emblem	Potash (Sylvite). Selected by school competition in 1996 and adopted by legislative amendment in 1997.
1997	Dress Tartan	Variant of the District Tartan. Registered with the Court of Lord Lyon King of Arms and adopted by legislative amendment in 1997.
2001	Grass Emblem	Needle-and-Thread Grass. Proposed by environmental groups in 1999 and adopted by legislative amendment in 2001.
2001	Animal Emblem	The White-Tailed Deer (Odocoileus virginianus). Appeared on the 1986 armorial bearings; adopted by legislative amendment in 2001.
2001	Official Sport	Curling. Adopted by legislative amendment in 2001. Permits Saskatchewan Curling Association to use Shield of Arms.